Bachelor's Combine.

The contest now raging in Clayton, N. J., is one to enlist serious attention. Stripped of side and minor issues, the principles involved are the right of bachelors to combine for protection against the wiles of women, and the right of women to use all fair and other means to disrupt and demoralize bachelor combinations.

Joseph P. Zane, who thinks he is a confirmed bachelor, organized the Clayton anti matrimonial club some time ago. He has been from the beginning its chief officer, and the evidence seems to show that he is a man gifted in no small degree with the qualities of patience, perseverance and pertinacity. Almost as fast as he has secured members the women who winter at the resort have ensnared them. But, it is claimed, each desertion has been compensated for by a fresh recruit, so that neither side can claim any decided advantage over the other up to the present time.

The last sally party sent out by the Clayton winter girls came back with several captives, and the report was widely circulated that among them was the vice-president of the anti-matrimonial club. This rumor has been denied, however, and President Zane is said to have smiled when informed that the young women were beginning to feel that they had reduced the ranks of the bachelors to the point where the latter would soon be willing to negotiate for terms of capitulation. His smiles were attributed to the fact that he has been promised a large number of recruits from the recently arrived eligibles.

But, nevertheless, this winter's campaign is to be the most severe of any the club has engaged in since its organization. It is a leap year and the Clayton winter girls are determined that it shall not pass until every member of the anti-matrimonial combine, including its founder and president shall have surrendered unconditionally. To bring this result about the girls will not hesitate to resort to every wile that has been practiced by their sex from the dawn of history to the present day. And aside from the valuable assistance which they will receive from their mothers, aunts and older sisters, and the mothers, aunts and elder sisters of the bachelors, they will, of course have the powerful backing of the national administration, which does not hesitate to exhibit openly its sympathy with their cause.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

STRONGEST EVIDENCE OF FAITH.

G. L. Penny Guarantees That Hyomei Will Cure The Worst Case of Catarrh In Stanford.

When one of the most reputable concerns in Stanford guarantees that a medicine will effect a cure or Mr. Penny will refund the money, it speaks volumes as to the merits of that remedy. It is in this way that Mr. Penny is selling Hyomei, the treatment that has made so many remarkable cures of both acute and chronic catarrh in Stanford and vicinity.

Hyomei is not a pill nor is it a liquid that has to be taken with a tablespoon or wineglass. Just breathe it by the aid of an inhaler that comes in every outfit and benefit will be seen from the first treatment.

It destroys all germ life in the air passages in the lungs and enriches and purifies the blood with additional ozone. It cures catarrh of the head and throat, or the stomach, liver and kidneys. Wherever mucous membrane contains catarrhal germs, there Hyomei will do its healing. When using this treatment the air you breathe will be found like that on the mountains high above the sea level, where grow balsamic trees and plants, which make the air pure by giving off volatile antiseptic fragrance that is healing to the respiratory organs.

A complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1 and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomei for several weeks' treatment.

Remember that if Hyomei does not cure you, G. L. Penny will refund your money. This is a good time to cure catarrh by this natural method and prevent catarrhal colds that are so common at this season.

Kid Carter knocked out Joe Choyowski in the first round. Choyowski claims Carter fouled him.

THE bill which has passed the Senate creating the county of Beckham out of Carter, Elliott, Rowan and Greenup, with Olive Hill as the county seat, will, of necessity, be a pauper county, of which we have decidedly too many already.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. This liniment is for sale by W. N. Craig.

PREACHERSVILLE.

J. T. Bingham sold to W. P. Grimes a combined mare for $90. Levi Bell bought a work horse for $45. Mr. West, of Garrard, bought of Jonah Marsee, his home here for $575. This is the fourth time this place has changed hands within a year.

While gathering eggs at the barn, Mrs. John B. Anderson fell and was seriously injured. She is reported as being some better. Mrs. A. J. Thompson, who has been ill of pleurisy, is improving. Mrs. Henry Blankenship is convalescent. Geo. King continues quite sick with lumbago. The sick and afflicted have our sympathy. Mrs. Charity King arrived Saturday from Norman, Okla., much to the joy of her many friends, and her son Carl, is especially happy.

Miss Pattie Stephenson and nephew, Stephenson Dozier, of Richmond, are visiting J. T. Bingham and wife. Miss Beniah Jordan was with the Misses Cummins Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Robinson, of Cedar Creek, have been visiting at Mr. B. T. Lunsford's. Mrs. Ollie Messer, of Garrard, has been over to see her friend, Mrs. D. M. Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. Archer, of Somerset, are now visiting the family of Mr. E. Foley. Mr. Eb Kennedy, of Stanford, was with G. C. Kennedy and family.

Our community was shocked as it has never been before when it learned of the sudden death of Mrs. John Holtzclaw last Sunday morning. She was apparently in the best of health, with the exception of a slight throat trouble. At four o'clock she awakened with a smothering spell, living only a short while and dying before a doctor could be secured. A loving husband and a prattling little fellow of two years are left to mourn the loss of a noble wife and mother, and in their overwhelming sorrow they have the sympathy of friends everywhere. Mrs. Holtzclaw was an intelligent, home-loving, Christian woman. She was Miss Carrie Bowen, of Garrard. May the bereaved family in their dark hours of sorrow look to Him who stills the waves of stormy Galilee and forget not that He doeth all things well. The funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church by Rev. Carmichael. The remains were laid to rest in the Lancaster cemetery.

W. A. Owings, the trainer, sold last week to A. Roberts, of Louisville, the fast pacing mare, Mary Lynn, 2:15, for $1,500. This mare was sold by A. E. Hundley recently to Lexington parties.—Danville News.

Monday was mule day at Mayfield and the greatest demand than at any time since the war. There were 180 mules sold at an average of $135, which brought about $25,000. It was county court day and thousands were in town.

There was a small crowd at court, the roads being too rough for travel. A few mules, horses and cattle changed hands. One pair of mules brought $300; 6 800-pound steers sold to John Goggie at 3c and 6 lighter steers for $250.—Somerset Journal.

MILLIONAIRE'S POOR STOMACH.—The worn out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaires unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over 35 years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Rev. T. N. Arnold prayed in the House at Frankfort that the capitol question should be speedily settled, and the solons proceeded forthwith to pass a bill appropriating a million for a new capitol. This is one of the quickest answers to prayer on record and since Bro. Arnold's petitions are apparently so acceptable at the throne of grace it is hoped that he will get behind all the good measures with his supplications.—Lexington Democrat.

FRANKFORT POLITICAL GOSSIP.

FRANKFORT, KY., Jan. 21.—From a political point of view Frankfort is an exceedingly lively place, but commercially speaking the town does not appear much ahead of Stanford, although twice as large.

The General Assembly after experiencing internal dissension of a rather serious character has about quieted down to straightforward business and some legislation is looked for during the next month. Something like 250 bills have been introduced, and of this unusually large number, only one has passed the Senate and one the House, but not a single bill has yet passed both houses.

There are four bills which it seems certain will become laws within the course of two weeks. All of them are of great importance and their passage will be received with gratification all over the State. They are the world's fair bill, appropriating $75,000 to the St. Louis exposition; the Johnson bill appropriating $1,000,000 for a new State capitol building; the Hedlin disfranchising bill, prohibiting ignorant and illiterate Negroes from voting and the Cantrill school book bill. All factions have been harmonious in the discussion of all bills except the school book bill, which has, figuratively speaking, stirred up the animals.

During recent sessions in the past, the Senate has been held responsible for the failure to pass school book legislation and the leaders in the House this time, fearing the same trouble, forced the Senate into action by the passage of a joint caucus resolution requiring a majority of the members of the General Assembly instead of a majority of each House necessary to make a joint call on the school book question. Many of the Senators objected to this method, declaring it revolutionary and for the purpose of throttling the Senate. The morning following the joint caucus Cantrill introduced his bill in the Senate and immediately following its required readings, the Upper House passed the bill by a unanimous vote. It then dawned upon the House that the Senate had stolen the much coveted thunder, but there was nothing left but insincerity if the House failed to pass it, because the bill was in reality a fine one. The House committee has reported the bill favorably with a few minor amendments and it will become a law just before the passage of the bill in the Senate Cantrill delivered a sensational speech denouncing the administration at Frankfort in the bitterest language conceivable and insinuated that several men in high places were selling out regularly to the book trusts. No one thought he had any strength until the roll was called which showed a unanimous vote.

In reply to the charges made against Gov. Beckham he sent a communication to the House, which denounced Cantrill in as strong terms as Cantrill had previously denounced him. In the letter the Governor stated that he was not and would not be a candidate for the U. S. Senate two years hence, although he had been created a candidate. However, even the House turned to the Cantrill measure and in poll log the vote asking for its immediate consideration, the result stood 63 to 13 in favor of the Cantrill measure.

The administration does not want the Cantrill bill passed because heretofore he has been fighting school book legislation and many think it is not right for the bill to bear his name, but that those who have been working diligently for six years should have the credit.

CLIMATIC CURES.—The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer clime, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles 25c; regular size 75c. At all druggists.
